President's Report - Art Miki

There has been a lot of activity around the Centre in preparation for Folklorama 2018 and the Japanese Pavilion. This has been an exciting learning experience for those volunteers who have taken on the responsibility for the first time in organizing and planning and I thank them for their enthusiasm and commitment. The Ambassadors have been very busy attending various Folklorama events; Ambassadors inaugural ceremony at Club Regent, Canada Day at Assiniboine Park, the Opening ceremonies at Assiniboine Park and meeting the Media at Caboto Centre.

- The honouring of Past Leaders at Keirokai on June 3 was a memorable occasion as family members shared stories of their parent who played a pivotal leadership role during the early years in Manitoba.
- The Bon Odori Festival at Burton Cummings Community Centre on July 7 was a great success. Although it was extremely hot, many joined in the odori dances and enjoyed the entertainment, food and drinks. Thanks to Yuhito Adachi and his crew for organizing the first Bon Odori Festival for JCAM.
- JCAM became a founding member of the newly formed Ethnocultural Council of Manitoba. Wanda Yamamoto and I signed the agreement.
- EISA , a large group of entertainers from Osaka Japan performed at the Japanese Pavilion on Wednesday and Thursday evening at the Japanese Pavilion. They enjoyed Winnipeg so much last year they wanted to come back and experience Folklorama!
- The film Facing Injustice by Aaron Floresco was shown on CBC Winnipeg on July 28. It will be shown in September as we approach the 30th anniversary of the redress settlement. Aaron is hoping to have copies of his video for sale soon. This film will be shown at the NAJC Conference on September 22 at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights. The conference is open to the public and I encourage community members to sign up. Registration is $35 which includes lunch. Contact NAJC at the Centre if you wish to attend.
- The annual Gala Dinner will be held Saturday evening on September 22 at the Museum as well. Tickets are $100 or $60 for students. Mark Sakamoto is the guest speaker.
- The JCAM Annual General Meeting will be held on Sunday, September 30 at 1 pm. We are seeking members to serve on the Board. Contact me if you are interested in serving for the next two years.
- Congratulations to Keiko Miki and Les Kojima who were both elected to the NAJC National Executive Board for 2018 – 2020 as Vice President and Treasurer respectively.
- There will be a special Folklorama Outlook in late September or early October. Thanks to all the Chairs and volunteers for their support during the week and to Karakoro EISA for their amazing performances.

Keirokai 2018

On Sunday, June 3rd, 132 members of the Japanese community met for Keirokai, our annual JCAM celebration. This event is one of the highlights of the year as we honor our seniors, and award the Harold Hirose Scholarships but this year also the JCAM Board had the opportunity to honor those Issei and Nissei who formed the MJCCA, the predecessor to JCAM.

The event included 42 honored guests age 70 and older. Each guest received a specially marked copy of the award-winning Mark Sakamoto book Forgiveness- A Gift from My Grandparents, winner of CBC's Canada Reads. Chef Sadao Ono prepared a lovely bento meal. Entertainment was provided by the Kaede Dancers as well as Yuko Nozoe on kokyu and Junko Rybuck on koto.

Thomas Hirose presented scholarships from the Harold Hirose Scholarship fund to Niina Dubik, Teo Hoppe and Julien Koga.

The Japanese Cultural Association of Manitoba (JCAM) recognized the early leaders who paved the way for the establishment of a strong Japanese Canadian organization. As time passes the efforts of these early leaders will be forgotten. This year, in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of Japanese Canadian Redress Agreement, it was an opportunity to revive past memories, especially for their families who may have been unaware of their parent's or grandparent's past involvement.

The earliest unofficial organization was the Manitoba Japanese Joint Council (MJJC) established in 1942 when a large contingent of Japanese Canadians opted to work on the sugar beet farms in Southern Manitoba. Families were selected by farmers to work in their fields as there was dire need of farm labourers due to conscription. Arrangements were made between the BC Security Commission and the Manitoba Sugar Beet Growers to relocate 1075 Japanese Canadians from West Coast during April to June 1942 in time for the sugar beet growing season. These workers and families faced issues such as inadequate housing, wage deficiency, loss of education, lack of drinking water and other concerns. A group of leaders led by Harold Hirose, Tom Mitani, Shinji Sato and Ichiro Hirayama provided the liaison between the families and BC Security Commission representative Frank Ernst to ensure that farmers lived up to their obligations. What made it difficult for the group was that it was illegal for them to gather often holding their meetings in hotel rooms, restaurants or other obscure locations where they would not be found out by the RCMP or government officials. The efforts of these leaders made life easier for Japanese Canadians as they adapted to the new environment and helped them find jobs and housing after leaving the farms.

In 1943 many young women ages 15 to 20 were recruited to work as domestics for influential families. It was a joint effort between the BC Security Commission and the YWCA. Thelma Scambler and Blanche Megaffin from YWCA were concerned for the welfare of these women and provided help to adjust to their setting away from their family and arranging social activities. A group called Niseiettes was formed and planned social gatherings inviting young men to their dances and other events. These Nisei women and men formed a group called Manitoba Nisei club but shortened their name to Manisei Club. The leaders Elmer Oike, Bill Sasaki, Margaret Inouye and Elsie Sasaki published a bulletin in English to keep younger Japanese Canadians informed of upcoming activities and events. It was through these contacts the many marriages resulted.

In March 1946 the Manitoba Japanese Joint Council and the Manisei club joined forces to create the Manitoba Japanese Canadian Citizens Association (MJCCA), the first Japanese Canadian organization formed in Canada after the war. The first Executive was Takaichi Umezuki, Shinji Sato, Kasey Oyama, Mickey Hayashi, Bill Sasaki, Yoshio Hikida and Kay Kusano. It was formed to fight deportation of Japanese Canadians to Japan, to protect citizenship rights of those being deported and to seek property claim losses for Manitoba Japanese Canadians. It is interesting to note that with the urging of MJCCA leaders, the National Japanese Canadian Citizens Association (NJCCA) was formed in September 1947 in Toronto to seek the franchise and compensation for property losses. The National Association of Japanese Canadians formerly NJCCA became the voice of the community for redress in the 1980s.

Keirokai is an annual event that has existed in Manitoba for over 50 years to honour those seniors who have contributed to the community. This year the recognition of the past leaders was a special part of the program as family members who currently reside in Winnipeg were invited to share a bit of their background.

The only living member of the original early leaders, Mrs. Kay Kusano attended.

JCAM's recognition of the contributions made by the past leaders was a meaningfully way to celebrate the 30th anniversary since the Japanese Canadian Reddress agreement was signed by Prime Minister Brian Mulroney in 1988.

Tributes to those early leaders…

A number of family members spoke eloquently at the Keirokai lunch of their parent's achievements. We thought some of these comments would be of interest to the members.

Florence Mitani

My father, Tamotsu Mitani, was born in Shiga-ken, Japan. He came to Canada as a 14 year old to join his parents, who were farming in Haney, BC. In 1942, when the Canadian government was forcing Japanese Canadians to move away from the West Coast, the Mitani's, like many other Haney families, chose Manitoba, in order to stay together as a family unit.

The Mitani clan was sent to Peto's beet farm in Emerson, MB. After the fall harvest, my parents left and motored to Jack MacArthur's farm in McGregor, MB. They didn't stay there long, in May, 1943, they moved to Winnipeg. My father held several jobs, and while working at Dominion Tanners, he took evening classes at the Manitoba Technical School, learning to repair radios and TVs. He eventually opened his own shop, Goodwill Radio and TV, on Ellice Avenue.

In 1948, Dad with Jim Iwabuchi, began teaching judo classes at various locations: the YMCA, the Carpiquet barracks, RCAF base and RCMP barracks. In 1952, with help from Harold Shimane and Noboru Shimizu, the Manitoba Judo Club was established. The highlight of my father s judo career was organizing the 1st Canadian Judo Championships in Winnipeg in 1959. He was inducted into the Canadian Judo Hall of Fame and the Manitoba Judo Hall of Fame, posthumously.
Although judo was his passion, Dad also loved to play tennis. Every Sunday morning, he would meet Jack Okimura at Sargent Park Tennis Courts for a few games. He was also an enthusiastic Blue Bomber fan, beginning at the old Osborne Stadium. Unfortunately, he died in 1963 at the age of 56 years, and never saw the many accomplishments of our community. I know he would have been very proud of our successes, especially this Cultural Centre.

Wayne Oike

Our dad, Eich, or Elmer as he was more commonly referred to, was born July 31, 1918, in Haney BC, which is a small section of the larger district of Maple Ridge.
After Japan attacked Pearl Harbour, on Dec. 7, 1941, the Japanese in Canada ,most of whom lived in BC, were forced to move East of the Rockies. The Oike family chose to come to Manitoba and work on sugar beet farms so that the family could stay together. Before the war, there were only a few Japanese in Manitoba. But slowly, Japanese were allowed to move into Winnipeg to seek work, which is what my dad and others, like Harold Hirose did. Our dad, and many of the others who will be recognized today, became involved in the Manisei club, the original JCCA, and were often involved in social events for the evacuees, such as dances put on by the YWCA, which had sponsored young Japanese girls to come into the city to work as domestics. Thelma Scambler of the Y, told me how painfully shy everyone was at these events and how grateful she was for people like our dad and others who tried to get things moving.

As the Japanese community slowly took root in Winnipeg, our dad along with other Nisei men, were accepted into the British Forces to act as Translators in the far east war effort. Later, dad met, then married, Sumiko Homma, or Sue as she was called by most. Together they raised 6 kids, all of whom are here today. During those post war years especially, dad stayed involved with the JCCA. I remember all the people coming to our tiny house on McCalman Avenue to write up and print out the Outlook on Gestetner machines. You young folk will have no idea what those are… he was there for the first year of Folklorama, and many years later. That first year the Japanese pavilion was held at the Buddhist Church. We had to lay fresh grass and set up tents in the yard beside the church.

After mom passed away, dad's life centred around his kids and grandkids, his job and golf. Dad passed away on Jan. 6, 1996. Our father, and those being recognized today, who moved to Winnipeg, always believed that working for the common good of the Japanese community was important. It showed in the things they were able to accomplish and in many ways, set the tone for the fledgling Japanese community for many years to come.

Diane Edwards

First of all, thank you for the opportunity to speak in honour of our father and grandfather Bill Sasaki. Dad was born in Vancouver, BC in 1920. He lost his 39 year old father to a drowning accident when he was the young age of 13. Being the oldest son, and in keeping with the Japanese culture, Dad had to support and raise his family, which consisted of: his mother, grandmother, two sisters and two brothers.

Which to me is unbelievable! At 13 I could maybe raise my eyebrows or my hand but to raise a family of that size? Not so much. Anyway, he learned to work hard early in life as the death of his father and the family debt, warranted nothing less. He was successful at both and their debt was paid off by 1942.

He thought all was good, but it wasn't. In 1942, they were evacuated east and worked on a farm. He later came to Winnipeg and joined the Canadian Intelligence Core on loan to the British army, serving in the far East. He was instrumental in forming the Manisei Club, became editor of the Outlook, and later upon return from overseas, helped to form the JCCA.

Dad spoke little of the Internment and his move to Winnipeg. He only spoke of a few experiences when he arrived here. He did not share much of the negativity. This would be his new home and new beginning. What little negativity he mentioned was the need for a permit to move around the city, he told us of the room for rent signs going down as he approached the rental properties, and the Japanese Canadians could not enlist in the Canadian Army until the mid 1940s

A very positive experience that he shared with his family and published in the local newspaper, was of the best Christmas present he could have ever received. In addition to the landlady taking much care and pain in roasting a Christmas turkey for him and his friends, a fully uniform dressed RCAF member approached them in a restaurant and extended his hand. In a very loud voice he said "Here's one Canadian speaking to another, though of different origin, and let me tell you, I have no hatred or bitterness toward you. I agree that though you may be finding things tough at present, don't give up. Keep your spirits high. We admire you. And good luck." Dad didn't give up. If Dad was bitter from the Internment, he did not pass that bitterness onto his family. Instead he believed in doing what was necessary to be a strong community member in Winnipeg and raise a family with those same beliefs. He was a proud Canadian, Manitoban, and proud Winnipegger. Dad loved life. Sadly, he passed at the early age of 58.

Japan Pavilion at Folklorama 2018

Thanks to the Ambassadors, the Folklorama Committee and all the Volunteers for your hard work and dedication to make the Japanese Pavilion a resounding success.:

Les Kojima and Art Miki, Co-Coordinators.

Forever in our hearts

Donations to the Centre

The Japanese Cultural Centre is a meeting place of kindred spirits, a provider of culturally relevant programs and events, and serves as a small repository for artifacts and memorabilia from our past. JCAM is a registered Canadian charity, which allows us to accept donations and issue tax-deductible receipts for monetary donations. We rely on monetary donations to help offset the considerable expense of operating our Centre. Donations of goods can also help offset our expenses either as replacements to offset needed expenditures, as an enhancement for our programs and services, or as an item for resale by us. Donations of goods and services are highly appreciated.

Our policy regarding any donation of goods dictates that gifts must be consistent with JCAM's mission and be deemed to support our core programs and special projects. All donated goods become the sole property of JCAM. It is JCAM's sole responsibility to determine if a gift or donation is to be accepted and if or how it is to be used. The Centre itself has very limited storage and display space. If you are considering making a donation of goods, we ask you to check with the Centre before delivery to determine appropriateness and usefulness.
Your continued support is very much appreciated and integral to the long-term future of the Japanese Cultural Association of Manitoba.

Shokuryōhin GROCERIES!

We remind you that we have a small grocery store we maintain for our members. In it you will find such Japanese food items as sembei, inari, natto, yakisoba , plain age, umeboshi and shoga. Open during Centre Office hours (9am-5pm Tues -Sat). If it's locked, just ask at the office and we'll be happy to open it up for you. (yes, these are photos of actual stock!)

The Horizon Club will be starting up again on Wednesday, September 5th. There will be the usual tai-chi, lunch, card games and lots of camaraderie. Throughout the year there will be fun and interesting activities. We are always looking for new activities – if you have any suggestions pass them on to us.

There will be a bus trip to South Beach Casino on Monday, October 15th. More details are available in this issue of the Outlook
We enjoyed our last lunch before the summer break on June 27th – the annual Natsu No Atsumari lunch. This year the lunch was catered by the Red Dot Food Truck who provided a delicious bento of sushi, shrimp tempura, edamame and mandarin oranges. Sadao and Sachiko Ono (Chef and the Mrs.!) prepared miso soup, age wonton and salmon and tuna sashimi which created quite the delectable feast when coupled with the Red Dot Food Truck output. This was followed by fun games and bingo.

If you are 55 years young or older, you are welcome to join the Horizon Club – as the saying goes "the more the merrier". Come only for the lunches if you like but give yourself enough time to catch up with friends. Membership is only $5 per person for the year. Lunch for members is $4 and for non-members is $5. Please come and check us out any Wednesday.

JCAM at Ai-Kon 2018

The JCAM space at Ai-Kon was well-defined.

Winnipeg's annual Japanese anime convention was held at the RBC Convention Center from July 27 – 29, and JCAM was there! For the second year, JCAM was invited to put on a display and panels on Japanese culture over the weekend, with Art Miki bringing greetings from JCAM during the opening ceremony.

As well as displays of cultural artifacts, convention goers were able to watch a demonstration of Ikebana, try Kendo and origami, make their own sushi lunch, watch tea ceremony, or get a quick introduction to the Japanese language. They were also treated to a talk on Japanese school life by a group of students from Kochi, Japan who are spending a year studying English in Winnipeg. As a special treat, the group also performed a festival dance. The weekend was capped by a fashion show, with traditional kimono being showcased and the Kochi students performing the festival dance for the assembled crowd.

The response from convention attendees and Ai Kon was overwhelmingly positive, and we hope to be able to participate next year!
A huge thank-you to the panelists and volunteers from JCAM: Lee Matsuo, Tatsuya Goto, Jiyu Iida, Ken Zelinsky, Sadao Ono, Yuhito and Ali Adachi, Brian Cox, Art Miki, Ken Teramura, Debra, Grace and Satoshi Takeuchi, Debbie Tsuyuki, Don Dubik, and Joy Letkeman. Thanks to all the other volunteers who also assisted.

You gotta know when to hold 'em, know when to fold 'em! Brian Cox had a rapt origami audience.

Kimonos are a lovely way to highlight Japanese culture!

Matcha is prepared and presented in the Chanoyu ceremony on traditional mats.

The historical display drew lots of interest and comments from the large Ai-Kon crowd.

JCAM JOINS THE ETHNOCULTURAL COUNCIL OF MANITOBA

On June 20th, representatives from more than 20 ethnic communities met at the South Sudanese Cultural Centre to become members of the Ethnocultural Council of Manitoba – Stronger Together Manitoba. The Council's mandate is to mobilize a shared voice for the ethnocultural groups who have unique cultural, religious and social needs but they have shared challenges and experiences in relation to settlement and integration and together they can become stronger. President Art Miki and Director, Wanda Yamamoto signed the accord on behalf of JCAM. Immigration Partnership Winnipeg and Aurora Family Therapy Centre will act as secretariat to support the Council in their work with refugees and immigrants.

BON ODORI

It was hot and humid, a typical Japanese summer day (but in Winnipeg!) on Saturday, July 7, for JCAM to host Winnipeg's first Bon Odori Festival. Over the centuries, Bon Odori has evolved into one of Japan's major summer festivals and JCAM wanted Winnipeggers to finally experience this joyful event.

Consul General of Japan, Shigenobu Kobayashi opened the festival with words of greeting on behalf of the Consulate-General of Japan in Calgary. Kohei Sakamoto, Consul of Public Relations and Culture also came to Winnipeg to join the festivities.Greetings were delivered by Robert Falcon-Ouelette, MP for Winnipeg Centre and Andrew Smith, MLA for Southdale. Festival goers were treated to hourly entertainment by local performers Hinode Taiko, Aurora Dance Group, Kaede Dance Group. Ai-Dolls Project, and Akane Akamatsu playing the shamisen. Typical Japanese street food such as takoyaki, kakigori, yakisoba, yakitori, and taiyaki, and various Japanese beers and soft drinks were available for sale. The main focus of the festival is dance and guests were invited to join the JCAM dancers doing traditional Japanese folk dances. A huge thank you to our festival sponsors: Consulate-General of Japan in Calgary, Investors Group – Yuhito Adachi, Beam Suntory, Pocca Poca Spa, Unique Bunny, Sun Wah Supermarket, and Be Positive Team-Based Coaching.

HAROLD HIROSE EDUCATION FUND

Mr. Harold Hirose was a driving force in the development of the Manitoba Japanese Canadian community. A founding member of MJCCA (1946) and the National JCCA (1947) he was also responsible for the formation of the Manitoba Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre (1987), serving as its first president.

In his memory, Mrs. Florence Hirose established the Harold Hirose Scholarship Fund to assist selected students from the Japanese Canadian community in furthering their post-secondary education. Additional contributions to the Fund were made by Mrs. Hirose and the children of Harold and Florence so as to increase the scholarship amount and widen the eligibility criteria.

Scholarship Award
Each year JCAM will offer scholarship(s) up to a total amount of $1,500 to the successful candidate. The Selection Committee may award up to two scholarships in the amount of $750 instead of a single scholarship if there are two applicants that are superior to all others and are both equally qualified to be awarded the scholarship. In an event that there is no scholarship awarded in any given year due to a lack of applications or that no applicant met the minimum selection criteria, the amount of the scholarship for that year will be added to the following year's funds, so that, for example, $3,000 would be available for the following year.

Who can apply?
Any person who is enrolled at a post-secondary institution, resides in Manitoba and who is of Japanese ancestry or who is a member of the Japanese community in Manitoba.

To Apply:
Please pick up application form at the Cultural Centre, 180 McPhillips Street, Winnipeg (204-774-5909) or on line at www.mjccc. org . Completed applications must be received by the JCAM Scholarship Committee by September 30, 2017.

On your next visit to the Cultural centre take time to spend some time in our revitalized Japanese Garden - sit down on the new stone bench and enjoy the beautiful surroundings. This year a new fence has been erected and the garden expanded in front to the vestibule. Sam Matsuo, our gardener, has spent enormous amount of time to maintain an ambiance of a traditional Japanese garden, likely the only public garden of this kind in Winnipeg. Thanks to the people who have contributed to the improvement of the garden Henry Kojima, Tom Yamashita, Paul Bainbridge, Marlene Mori and Ray Normandeau for building the bridge. We wish to acknowledge the financial support from the Frank H. Hori Charitable Foundation and JCAM Horizon's Club as an important commitment to maintaining Japanese culture in Manitoba.
